VAPING AND TEENS: WHAT PARENTS NEED TO KNOW

A Presentation for All Parents

By the Caron Foundation

E-cigarettes are very popular with young people. Their use has grown dramatically in the last five years. Today, more high school students use e-cigarettes than regular cigarettes. The use of e-cigarettes is higher among high school students than it is among adults. Learn how you can take action.

Join us to help eliminate the mystery and better equip you with the information you will need to help your child make safe decisions
